

SUSAN BALSAMO, MSW, LCSW

Education Associates Degree, Pasco-Hernando Community College
Bachelor's degree in social work, Saint Leo University
Master of Social Work with a graduate certificate in Addictions, University of Central Florida, Orlando

Experience 1/2008 - Present, Pathways Counseling Center, Spring Hill, FL.
Therapist, provide therapy to diverse populations including children, adolescents, adults and geriatric clientele.

8/2003 - Present, Hernando County School Board, Brooksville, FL.
School social worker: Responsible for students in four Hernando County schools, linking students and their families to resources, truancy intervention, student support-team meetings, 504 eligibility determination staffings, suicide assessments, homicide assessments, student and family advocacy, clinical history assessments, individual, group, and family counseling. Member of the crisis-response team.

8/2003 - 4/2004, Community Hospital, New Port Richey, FL.
Weekend and PRN therapist, providing group and individual therapy to clients in the behavioral health care crisis stabilization unit.

4/2002 - 8/2003, Community Hospital, New Port Richey, FL.
Social worker/therapist, behavioral health unit, in-patient, provided therapy, served as court advocate for patients, developed treatment plans.

Licensure and Certification:

Licensed Clinical Social Worker